IMPORTANT DECISION

LEGAL DECISION AS TO THE RIGHTS OF THE PUBLIC IN THE STREETS IN BANGOR TERMINATING IN KENDUSKEAG STREAM AND PENOBSCOT RIVER

The following opinion has just been announced by our Supreme Court, in a case argued before it at the last June (law) term, by A. W Paine and C P Stetson for appellant, and by A G Wakefield and H C Goodenow for the city It is a case involving principles not only of general interest, but of much local importance and seems to definitively establish the full rights in the city to low water mark under the dedication to the public by the original proprietors of the streets running to the Penobscot river and Kenduskeag stream This question, more or less mooted for the past thirty years, may now be considered finally put to rest.

CHARLES STETSON, APPELLANT) VS CITY OF BANGOR.

Kent, J

The case before us is much simplified by the admissions made by the counsel for the appellant. He admits that by the proceedings of the owners, in the early part of this century, in causing their land to be run out into lots and streets, and a plan thereof to be made, and afterwards selling lots according to that plan, they gave a right to the grantees to use those streets and to have them kept open as such. And he does not deny that when the city afterwards assumed to appropriate and lay out such street as a public way, the owners of the fee were barred from recovering more than nominal damages His reasons for this conclusion are clearly stated, and are more fully quoted at the conclusion of this opinion.

We think it clear that on the facts proved and admitted the counsel is fully justified in making these admissions, and that in doing so he shows a very commendable spirit of fairness and good sense, and is enabled thereby to bring his own argument directly to the real questions in issue. He states the question on this part of the case thus—"The simple question is whether the premises now laid on below high water mark, were by the plan appropriated for a street." Perhaps a more exact statement of the question would be—what was the extent of the dedication made by the owners, as shown by their plan, by their deeds, and by the facts connected with the subsequent use and occupation? It being admitted that as to the upland embraced within the lines of Hancock street, no damages, certainly none beyond nominal, can be rightfully and legally claimed, the question is, whether any damages, or any beyond nominal, can be claimed for the taking of the land below high water mark, for the purpose of establishing Hancock street, as a town way, under the recent act of the Legislature. As before stated, that must depend upon the extent of the dedication

The appellant claims a right to full damages as the absolute owner of the unincumbered fee This claim rests upon the assumption that by no acts of theirs, the original proprietors lost any of their absolute and unqualified right to own, possess, and use the flats It is not questioned that if there was any dedication reaching the flats, it was of a right of way—like that on the upland

In order to ascertain the intention of the owners, all the facts must be taken into consideration The quantity, location of the whole plat,—the purpose and intent of the owners in thus laying it out into small lots on the rivers, and into larger ones on the land more remote—the streets designated, and the purposed view in thus laying them down? No one can doubt that the leading object of the proprietors was to make such a location and such a plan, as should offer inducements to purchasers to invest in these lots. It is evident that the sagacious owners foresaw that these shore lots, particularly, would be in time occupied by blocks of stores, each lot having its share of the flats in front. They also saw that if they limited the streets on the plan to Pop ar or Exchange or Washington, streets there would be no access to the stream or river by the public or by the owners of the lots. They therefore extended the seven or more streets to the water, on the plan, which was presented to the town It is admitted, as before shown, that this was a good dedication, binding the owners of the land, to high water. But what was the great value or use of these streets or ways, or docks, except to connect the upland with the river, so that the two highways might be made continuous?

It is urged that the line drawn on the plan is that of high water, and that therefore the dedication could not extend beyond that point. But it is to be observed that this line of high water is the same on all the lots, and was adopted to designate the line between the upland or dry land and the river And yet there can be no doubt that the flats in front of the lots were not reserved by the owners (although it was competent for them to convey only the upland) but passed by the original ordinance to the persons who bought the lots by the plan But strictly measured they do not extend beyond high water mark on the plan. There is no line drawn across these streets at the stream to indicate a termination of the street or way at that point. We think that the true construction of the plan and deeds referring to it, is that the Kenduskeag stream and the Penobscot River were adopted as the boundary lines; or, in other words, that so far as these streets are in question, it was the intention to make a direct and unbroken connection between the street and the river at all times of the tide.

The Penobscot River and the Kenduskeag stream, are both highways, over which the public have a right to pass, and repass with boats, vessels or rafts. But they would not have a right to land and to use the upland as a way or road to transport their water borne goods, without the assent of the owner of the land. These proprietors, we think intended to give by dedication this right. This is admitted as to land above high water.—But that right would be of very little use or value, if it could be only exercised when the tide was at the exact point of high water. If no part of the flats could be thus used there could be such use only twice in twenty-four hours. And further, as we understand the claim on which the appellant rests, he might close all connection between the two highways by building a wharf or stores over the whole parcel of land or flats in front of the lines of the street. Could this have been the intention of the donors?

The case of Russell vs Leicester, 7 Dedham Rep 500 (cited in the plaintiff's brief) has been laid out upon Merrimack River, as was found that the shore upon that river, and that these was Court, "It is admitted by both parties, that the river Monongahela, being a navigable stream belongs to the public, and a free use of it may be claimed by the public, whatever may be the extent of its volume of water.—If Water street be bounded by the river on the south, it is only limited by the public right. To contend that between this boundary and the public right a private and hostile right could exist would not only be unreasonable but against law."

The proprietors, having sold all the lots according to the numbers and according to the plan, which contained all these streets, the purchasers have a right to have these streets kept open and unincumbered. The proprietors impliedly covenant, or certainly are estopped from denying, that the streets are to be kept open, and that they are not to be appropriated by any act of theirs to private use. This proposition is not denied But it is denied that this right extends beyond high water mark, to the individual purchaser of a lot, even of the lots on each side of the street. This construction would diminish the value of all the lots and of these corner lots more than of the other lots. We think that the true ideal intent was that these streets or docks not only reached the line of high water but that it was the intention that the stream should be the limit and that the purchasers should always have an open dock or way on one side of their wharves or lots They must have so understood the plan We should require the most conclusive and absolute evidence of the existence of a reservation, which would allow the proprietors selling these lots by that plan to erect the next week a wharf covering the whole flats, and excluding any connection with the stream as a highway or landing place, or as an open dock, before we could yield to such a result

Proof of user by the public is competent evidence in determining whether a dedication has been made Mayor &c of Jersey City vs Morris Canal, 1 Beasley (New Jersey) 583 In the case before us, the report finds such user for 40 to 50 years, for a landing place to haul out lumber, lumber, wood, &c., which was transported over the street to different places in the city The street commissioners since 1857, have exercised a care over it, working upon it, and filling out with earth so as to make it passable to get to low water—removing obstructions on it, and also a building erected without authority, and facilitating such egress and ingress by erecting wharves, with suitable slips No opposition was made to the doings of the street commissioners — Although the street was sometimes obstructed by timber and lumber, hauled out of the stream, yet a passage way was always left to the stream, and the three commissioners gave notice to the owners of such timber to remove it and in case of neglect caused it to be removed, exercising the same care over this street, as over other streets in the city

The single act of Zadoc French, one of the original proprietors, in undertaking to monopolise the use of the slip, or as much as he wanted for his building materials, when erecting the Penobscot Exchange, cannot overcome the effect of this long continued use by the public It was only a claim to use it temporarily for his own private purposes, and was more than 40 years ago It was not followed up It was not a formal entry to assert title for himself and other owners If there had been a dedication, he could not revoke it by such an act, and he was but one of the three owners. And the same remarks, or most of them, apply to the deed made by Amasa Stetson, another proprietor, in 1834 — But this deed is a simple release of all right, title, and interest, which the grantor then had in the premises. It does not purport to convey the land, but merely the then existing right in the grantor, if any. If he had before parted with his right by dedication or by conveyance, he could not, and he did not undertake to convey anything by this deed It has been decided by this court that such a release does not convey the land itself or any particular estate in it, but simply and only the actual right or title, which may be then in the grantor Coe vs Persons unk. 43 Me, 432

The deed, however, is significant, as showing the understanding of this original grantor, or donor as to the original intent of the proprietors. It speaks of it as the extension of Hancock street to said stream, and as being the slip or dock at the bottom of Hancock street, as laid down on this plan. Then follows a condition that the grantee is not to obstruct it by buildings, but "the same is to be kept open as a wharf or street way from said Poplar (Exchange) street to Kenduskeag stream" This clearly shows the Amasa Stetson, under whom the appellant claims, understood that there was a slip or dock, and that the way was to be kept open and free to the stream, thus, at all events, connecting one highway with the other

The appellees do not claim any prescriptive right by reason of this public use of the flats for more than twenty years It was decided in State vs Wilson, 42 Me 9, that the public having a right at common law to pass over the stream as a highway, no adverse right could be acquired by a rightful and legal user. But the uninterrupted and unresisted use of this dock or slip as a continuation of Hancock street, by the public for so many years, is a fact to be duly estimated in determining the question of dedication and of the extent of the dedication

We return to the single point on which the decision of this case must rest. A dedication or appropriation to some extent being admitted, the question is, did it end at high water mark?

Our conclusion is that it did not. We think the intent was to connect the two highways, and to make the margin of the stream, at all state of the tide, the point of connection and thus authorize the use of the flats, as they have been used by the public as a part of the way

The way being thus dedicated, the right of the public to use it did not require any appeal laying out by the public authorities, so far as the rights of individuals were in question. But it was perhaps thought that the assent of the legislature was required to lay out a street over these tide waters, and that such laying out would mark more exactly the lines and give greater confidence to the authorities in acting in reference to this street.

But at all events, it could not operate to the injury or loss of the owners of the soil. It is to be remembered that the question before us is not as to the legality of such laying out, but as to the damages to the claimant, assuming, as he does in the case, that the laying out was legal

His counsel admits that if the land had been dedicated, even if the dedication had originally been only in favor of that part of the public who had become purchasers of the lots on the plan, yet "the law would give the proprietor no damages for extending that right to embrace the whole public, for as a mere owner of the soil, no damage is occasioned by this enlargement of the use" This is well settled law and good common sense

The facts stated in relation to the mode adopted by the city to make this use available cannot be properly considered in this case, as the question here relates solely to the damage for taking the land for a street. If the authorities do not keep it properly as an open way, it is a matter for the public, or for those using it, to remedy by indictment or otherwise.

The result is that the appeal is dismissed.

BUTTER AND CHEESE

There were some fine specimens exhibited by Mrs S A Davis, Mrs O C Friend, Mrs B A Shaw and Miss S E. Tibbetts

AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS

There were some nice traces of corn on exhibition by John Fogg, O C Friend, A. Moseley, J Barden Best wheat by Benj. Friend, Best Early Rose potatoes, H. Hutchings, Best specimen 12 varieties of potatoes, A Lumbert

There was a full show of garden vegetables which do credit to the exhibitors

LADIES' DEPARTMENT

Best fulled cloth, diaper and trash, Mrs J S Rundlett, Best flannel, Mrs. James Friend, Best display of house plants, Mrs. S H Friend, Best cambric embroidery, Mrs Stephen Boynton, Best hearth rug, Mrs H C Friend, Best patch work quilt, Mrs B W Abbott. Among this fine display was linen thread and woolen yarn spun by Mrs Sarah Sylvester on her 90th birthday The display of articles in this department, combining the useful with the ornamental, were so numerous, that to attempt to give a full description would simply be to give a catalogue of all the necessaries and luxuries pertaining to a convenient, economical and happy household

Miss Tillie Friend, Miss Lizzie Shaw, Miss Emma Abbott and Miss Abbie Boynton treated the company to a specimen of admirable horsemanship

The Committee on Dogs presented the following report! They were more than gratified at the small number on exhibition, there being scarcely more than is frequently seen at church, yet there were enough to satisfy the Committee and all good citizens that the canine species is an unmitigated and unmitigable nuisance We do not know as the character of those men who attempted to start a dog fight against the laws of the State and the moral sensibilities of all good citizens, comes under our jurisdiction, yet we believe that such conduct should not pass unremarked It is a gratifying consideration that neither of the parties belonged in the good town of Etna.

Japan is certainly in earnest in its endeavors to acquire a higher civilization It is now some years since we have had embassies, pupils and interviewers from that country, all bent upon learning how we live and thrive and govern ourselves. They have invited our officials to show them what we know about farming, and now it is said that they propose to establish religious equality Whether the toleration will be of the Cromwellian pattern it is too soon to judge, but we can fancy the astonishment of the Japanese should there be set down in one of their large towns missionaries from the different Protestant sects from civilized Europe and America. Whether they would be able to comprehend, or comprehending inclined, to choose between high and low church, Baptist and pedo-Baptist, Presbyterianism and Boston radicalism, is for time to show. Toleration however, is as, if not the first, step toward a close and safe intercourse, such an intercourse would, doubtless be mutually profitable, and, although there might be some danger of a growth of skepticism, it is nevertheless true that doubt is the mother of faith. Should it prove in Japan that legal is not quite social equality, and that religious toleration does not always signify "moral amnesty," it would be no more than is shown in some sections of our own country. In case do not harm, it may do much good. It is a start in the right direction, and there may be in the future such a reflex influence as shall give our free and independent people new and better ideas of liberty of opinion, and the safety as well as right of individuals, even when unpopular judgment.

WALL STREET MORALS.

[From the N Y Herald]

Black Friday has had its worthy successor in Northwest Friday, and the genial gentlemen who fight under the standards of Taurus and Ursus on the pavements of the Stock Exchange on the Gold Room have met with woful defeat to the latter. Most animals, when driven to a corner, fight with mad desperation, and if they cannot, like the cat in the fable, get safely "up a tree," try as many tricks as the fox, who had a hundred of them, Jay Gould, with the bull's skin on his shoulders, had Henry N Smith, Daniel Drew and a host of stock jobbing cubs in the bear's hide tightly pinned in a "corner" on Friday His horns were driven through the financial diaphragms of the two bruins. Henry in agony yelled to the law courts for help, and induced a Sheriff's officer to put the bull into "pound" saying he had gored the Erie ox to the tune of nine million dollars Before, however the boys could "get out," the bull gave a whisk to his tail, jumped out of the pound and again pinned the miserable bears to the corner—this time with increased effect. He held them there all Friday night, bleeding them all the while, until Saturday afternoon, when Daniel paid nearly a million to be let go As he drew the horns out of his bank account he doubtless envied his ancient namesake, who was more fortunate in his little trouble with the horns of Nebuchadnezzar

In all these wars among the Titans of the street with Jupiter Bontwell looking down for a chance to hurl his golden thunderbolts among them, there is a fine irony on the civilization we boast This time Jupiter could not interfere and the battle continues with every shade of stock jobbing devilry, comical to behold Now it is the fat kine of Pharaoh against attenuated bears who have sucked their paws for months in the Micawberish hope that something better would turn up, but did not. 'Prairie Dog," "Harlem," "Rock Island or 'Erie, it is all of the same The bear of yesterday is the bull of to-day, and will be a rhinocerous to-morrow if that pachyderm was in the ascendency of the street In the thick of the fight the calves and the cubs are trampled out ruthlessly, and nobody suffers or cares but themselves They have as many lives as a cat, and when ruined in the morning go into bankruptcy at noon and having "got that off their mind" like the bits of Micawber, appear on the curbstone before dusk as lively as crickets and as discouragious as ever

While occasional appearances of magnanimity in small doses, give their charm to the war, it is entertaining to note the ferocity with which the greed among the vanquished are treated No mediæval Jew ever had his flesh drawn with more refinement of cruelty than the war in which an admiral bull draws checks from the shorts"

But the story of Jay Gould is the most curious in the category Here is a man stamped by his old partner with misapplying (stealing is it?) about nine millions He is arrested with the utmost obsequiousness, conveyed tenderly to the Sheriff's office and in three minutes an hour and half seconds is out! Astronomical way back to the fight, and all the next day receives the submission of his enemies Now if he is really the terrible dictator they charge him to be, why not break with them and try him in earnest" He knows besides them in the financial vise so tightly that they are fain to relax the legal pressure on him The miserable wretch who grabs a ten dollar bill to buy bread for his family is treated with all the severity that such a ferocious criminal deserves It it were a bagatelle of nine millions he would not be hustled and clubbed but arrested with an apology and shown out of Court with a gentlemanly courtesy

THE CONSTITUTIONALITY OF THE United States Shipping Act was argued before Judge Benedict in New York, Saturday in the case of two boarding house runners recently convicted of boarding foreign vessels before they reached their place of destination without the consent of the masters Their counsel contended that Congress has no jurisdiction to make police regulations for the port of New York and in case of foreign vessels he could be no jurisdiction before the arrival at the place of destination The Judge reserved his decision

THE INDIANA ELECTION A New York mans special to the New York Times states that the acting returning board consisting of Messrs Lynch Herron, Hawkins and Ewing meet have since their appointment been examining the election returns from all the parishes, and find that W P Kellogg for Governor has a majority of 12 761 This also closes the whole Republican State ticket. The Republican Presidential electors majority is about the same as Kellogg's, there is also a handsome working majority of the Republican Representatives elected to both Houses.

A STRANGE REPORT A New York morning paper publishes the story current in the newspaper circles for nearly a week, that Horace Greeley is insane, and says he is now an inmate of Sing Sing at White Plains The same paper makes public an interview with Whitelaw Reid managing editor of the Tribune in which he says, in answer to questions that Greeley has been under medical treatment and very likely might be considered by some stark mad but he is simply nervously prostrated For a month prior to the death of his wife he did not sleep an hour a night and since her death has been in the same condition In answer to the question Is it true that Greeley drew a knife on one of his friends? Reid is made to answer by the interviewer, I tell you that the (Greeley) has done nothing which to those who know him seem strange. He is always an eccentric man and at best acts as if he was queer, but now he is vously prostrated, strangers might think him crazy I have seen him positively ferocious when first proof had been brought him instead of a revise" Reid said Greeley, notwithstanding the loss of sleep and appetite, was in general good health, and made a request of the reporter to say he was only nervously prostrated There was no good in saying more Greeley has had enough to worry him and what he needs is quiet and rest.

The Express is assured that Greeley's health is not so bad as was represented, but is unable to be at his post or to perform any editorial work

"SLIPPERY DICK" Ex Comptroller Connoly of New York City, is now known to have joined his family in Spain, but has spent most of the time since he left in rambles through Spain, Portugal and Italy He left Italy Nov 1st for the Holy Land and Egypt, India, China and Japan. It is stated that a female confidential agent of Connolly secured County Auditor Watson's book that was deposited in the safe deposit vaults of the Park Bank building, and in which the amounts and dates of sums stolen and distributed between the members of the Ring were entered in detail The book was carried to Europe on the 15th of October

EXPEDITION AGAINST ZANZIBAR. The United States steamship Yantic arrived at Aden on Friday last, bound for Zanzibar. She is now coaling, and after being supplied will immediately leave. The United States flag ship Colorado's orders have been changed, and it is rumored she will also go to Zanzibar. The British steamship Seiton is at Aden awaiting the arrival of Sir Bartle Frere. The naval officers are sanguine over the anticipation of an appealing against slavery. The Enterprise will also leave Bombay for Zanzibar.

He desires to anticipate the English expedition in the seizure of the lake regions of the Nile.

DISRESSING SHIPWRECK The Cunard steamship Batavia, arrived at Boston Monday, from Liverpool. She reports that Nov 10th, lat. 49 10, lon. 41 40 20, fell in with the wreck of barque Charles Ward, of Newcastle, Eng, bound from Quebec to Sunderland; dismasted and waterlogged, the vessel having encountered the hurricane of the 18th All of the after part of the vessel had been washed away by the heavy sea, and the survivors of the crew were found clinging to the rigging, where they had been exposed to the winds and waves for the previous thirty six hours, during which time eleven of the crew were washed overboard and drowned The survivors, including Capt. J F Bell, the master the first and second mates and six of the crew were safely transferred to the steamer and brought to Boston.

The Boston Advertiser gives some curious facts relative to paper in the safes in the burnt district. It says —"It has been found that what paper-makers call poor paper, paper considerably 'clayed,' stood the best test. Parchment paper, used for bonds and legal documents, shriveled up exceedingly, and the print blistered so that it could be read when writing was illegible So it was with the engraved work on notes The gilding on account books burned and charred showed out as bright and clear as when the books were new, which brings up the question if to introduce gilt-edged account books would not be well, on the ground that the gilt would stay the passage by fire of the pages within Books crammed into a safe so that it was difficult to get them out, suffered considerably less than those that were set in loosely and in some cases came out from safes in which everything else was worthless, so far preserved that the figures on their pages could be deciphered. With charred papers, which could not be made transparent by any light whatever used, it was found, after the employment of nitric, oxalic acid, chalk, glycerine and other things, that anything that consigned them to a certain stage—to which it was delicate work to get and not pass—made the lines, words and figures legible through a magnifying glass It has been the almost universal experience that lead pencil marks show out all right where ink marks cannot be distinguished The success of the use of photography had already been noted"

INSURANCE IN MASSACHUSETTS Gen Whitney's insurance bill, now in the hands of the Massachusetts Legislature, is exciting much interest in insurance circles It prohibits joint stock companies from declaring from their earnings dividends larger than four per cent. semi annually on their capital stock, but allows them to issue pro rata certificates of stock of such portion of their income after providing for expenses, losses and liabilities and re insurance, and thus increase their capital stock

Mr A S Wheeler stated before the committee that the amount of premiums in Massachusetts last year was over six millions and the unprecedented losses by the Chicago fire ran up the losses to ten millions. This profit should be retained in the State, and the question was how to insure protection to the policy holders On the first of January last the gross assets of the Massachusetts companies was eighteen millions, and after deducting all liabilities and a sufficient amount to re insure they had a net surplus of over 12 millions or one dollar of cash assets for every 35 dollars risk The other companies doing business in Massachusetts had gross assets of 31 millions and 11 millions net, or one dollar of assets for every 5.5 dollars risk The English companies doing business in the State had one dollar of assets to every 218 dollars risk He believed that or the day of the fire the Boston Insurance Companies were considered the strongest in the world All insurance companies were not successful, and in order to get the capital subscribed there must be some compensation for the risk, and this was fixed in Gen Whitney's bill It gave the stockholders the benefit of the profit, while it stood as a guarantee fund for the policy holders

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL

Lewis, Conservative, has been returned to Parliament from Londonderry

Democracy doesn't flourish in Michigan. Only four of that ilk in the House and one in the Senate

The Pennsylvania Constitutional Convention is discussing the expediency of biennial sessions of the Legislature

O Conor and Adams lec Greeley and Grats in two Iowa counties The former received some 2400 votes in the State.

Edward Harris a prominent manufacturer, and business man of Woonsocket R I, died on Saturday

Admiral Alden left Madrid Friday evening for Carthagena, whence the American fleet was to sail for Nice

It is telegraphed all the way from St. Louis that Mrs Jas A Oates, the actress, is married to Tracy W Titus

Bulletins from the Royal Palace at Madrid announce the condition of the King gradually improving

E Cowles, editor of the Cleveland (Ohio) Leader is lying dangerously ill at his residence

The official count of the vote of Missouri for Governor gives Woodson 150,714, and Henderson 121 271 For Lieut. Governor, Johnson had 157 040, and Stover, 120,448

Rev Dr Pentecost preached his farewell sermon to an immense congregation in Brooklyn Sunday He goes to Boston as pastor of the Warren Avenue Baptist church

The President is still engaged in the preparation of his message He received only a few visitors yesterday, including Judge Pierrepont of N Y

While the electoral vote of Florida has been secured for Grant and Wilson beyond peradventure, there is said doubt with respect to the State ticket

The President's message was completed in the rough on Saturday, and will be presented for Cabinet consideration Tuesday. It will not, as reported, recommend universal amnesty

George Q Cannon, delegate elect from Utah files an answer to General Maxwell, contestant for the seat in the 43d Congress Cannon's reply is very lengthy, and denies all the material allegations of Maxwell

The total vote of Illinois is 21,780 less than four years ago Grant received 8159 less than he did in 1868, and Greeley received 13,514 less than Seymour Grant's majority in 1868, 51,150, in 1872, 56,502

In Arkansas a collision is threatened between the old State Government and the Democratic candidates Both sides claim the election, and the present Government will probably retain control until the results is definitely known.

The New York Times calls upon Senator Fenton to resign. It says if he had any sensibility to public scorn, or any respect for the fitness of things politica, he would retire to private life and save himself "from universal contempt."

The Richmond, Va., Whig, (Bourbon) commenting on ex Secretary Wells' history of Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation, says "It will be a source of eternal regret that the author of this great and revolutionary measure did not live to regulate its results." If we recollect aright the Whig used very different language at the time of President Lincoln's assassination.

The Cincinnati Enquirer proposes to stand by the Coalition. It says "We can stand defeat, but not dishonor. To go back, as some of our exchanges and some politicians of eminence appear to desire, of the Baltimore Convention; to virtually admit that we were imbecile in sustaining its platform, is disgrace and infamy."

Between thirty and forty Confederates have been elected named on of the Missouri Legislature, and a question involving their eligibility has arisen. The Constitution of Missouri provides that "no person shall be a member of the House of Representatives who shall not have been a qualified voter two years next before the day of his election." The enfranchisement of these men occurred less than two years ago.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

NEW YORK CITY.

THE MURDERED AND MISSING.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25. This morning Thos. Delaney stabbed Wm. Lee and Thomas Donovan fatally.

August Staudinger, former proprietor of a well known restaurant on Broadway and Broad streets, is missing.

Anthony Eaton who was knocked down, beaten and robbed on Thursday evening by a street company, is dying from his injuries.

George Lewis, a publisher, is another missing man.

Kelsey, the mobbed and missing young man at Huntington, L. I., has not been discovered as reported. The excitement has increased and the authorities are preparing an organized search for him and the prosecution of his persecutors.

EARLY JUSTICE.

Of His cases of homicides sent to the District Attorney of New York for disposition, since January 1st, 1870, only 42 convictions have followed. The total number of homicides during that time was 139. Six of the murderers suicided. Ten were discharged by the coroners, and twelve of the murders were committed by unknown persons.

NORTHWESTERN STOCK.

At the Stock Board to day Northwestern shares have fluctuated from $150 to $185, then down to $175 again, and then reacted to near to $180. The preferred stock rose ... to 102, and fell back to 93¼.

DANIEL AND THE LIONS.

A suit has been instituted by the Erie Railway Company against Daniel Drew to recover $5,400,000, alleged to have been embezzled by him while Treasurer of the Erie company in 1868, by the sale of 50,000 shares of watered stock.

REFORM ASSOCIATION.

The citizens and tax-payers are taking steps to organize a new Reform Association to be known as the "Electic Municipal Reform Association."

VARIOUS MATTERS.

The Steamship Nevada from Liverpool for this port, put back to Queenstown, yesterday, with machinery disabled.

Walter S. Griffith, Vice-President of the Chamber of Commerce, died to-day, aged 64.

Rosenweig, the abortionist, was remanded to jail for trial to-day, Judge Faucher denying an application for bail under the writ of habeas corpus.

MR. GREELEY'S HEALTH.

The Express says:—"The club rooms are full of gossip about Mr. Greeley's loss of reason, a paralytic attack, seeking an asylum, &c., &c., but we discredit them all and wish soon to see him restored to health."

Mr. Sinclair, publisher of the Tribune, stated to an Express reporter to-day that Mr. Greeley's and he was suffering only from nervous prostration.

Another interviewer obtained from the Tribune office a statement that they knew nothing of Mr. Greeley's insanity or of his being placed in an asylum. He had been for some days, and greatly prostrated, but when last heard from he had sufficiently recovered to be able to eat regularly and to converse with friends. Mr. Greeley is in need of rest and seclusion from annoyance by visitors or the cares of business.

THE WEIGHT OF POLITICAL EXCESS

upon his mind has been depressing, it is averred, but possibly not damaging to the mental ability of a man of Mr. Greeley's age.

MR. GREELEY NOT IN AN ASYLUM.

Evening—In answer to inquiries at the Tribune office this evening regarding the condition of Mr. Greeley, the following was obtained from the best authority:—The reports of Mr. Greeley's treatment at Bloomingdale or any other asylum, or of application for his admission to any, are preposterous. He is still suffering from nervous collapse, the result of the loss of nearly all sleep almost continuously for one month during his wife's illness. This finally affected the nerves of his stomach and for a few days it rejected food, whereby the system was still more weakened. Within a day or two there has been a marked both in the sleeping and eating, and his physicians are hopeful; but he is still a very sick man, and for the present his friends can best show their regard by letting him alone.

CHANGE FOR THE BETTER,

MOTION DENIED.

Judge Gilbert of Brooklyn has denied the motion for a stay of proceedings in the case of Henry Rogers, sentenced to be hanged for the murder of Officer Donohue.

BAILEY'S BONDSMEN.

Some time ago judgment was obtained in the United States Circuit Court against the bondsmen of the absconding Internal Revenue Collector Bailey. To-day the counsel for the bondsmen moved to open the judgment. Judge Woodruff reversed his decision. In case judgment is opened the bonds men will make the defence that the National Government did not use proper diligence to prevent the commission of frauds by Bailey and to obtain his arrest and the immediate attachment of all his available property as soon as good ground for suspicion was shown.

WASHINGTON.

THE NEW MAJOR GENERAL.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25. Gen. McDowell has been appointed Major General in the army to succeed Major General Meade, deceased. Gen. McDowell has been ordered to the Department of the South. Gen. Hancock is ordered to the Military Department of the Atlantic, with headquarters at Philadelphia and New York.

DECISION REVERSED.

The Supreme Court of the United States to-day reversed a decision of the Supreme Court of Louisiana, which declared void a contract founded on a consideration of confederate money, this Court ruling that the State law under which the decision was made unconstitutional, as impairing the obligation of contracts.

GENERAL TERRY

is appointed to the command of the Department of Dakota, vacated by General Hancock.' General McDowell's new headquarters will be at Louisville.

THE PARDON OF HODGE.

The President in the pardon of Paymaster Hodge was, it is understood, moved to clemency by the belief that Hodge was drawn into defalcation by the intrigues of others, rather than by any predetermined intention of his own to defraud the Government.

REVIVING COMMERCE.

The President to-day in private conversation with a shipbuilder said that he would in his forth coming annual message recommend that Congress take action with a view to restore the commerce of the country to the condition it was before the late civil war.

POSTAL CONVENTION WITH NEW FOUNDLAND.

A postal convention has been concluded with the Province of New Foundland, reducing the international letter rate between the United States and New Foundland on and after Dec. 1st, from 10 cents to 6 cents per half ounce and, fixing the rate for newspapers at two cents each, prepayment being compulsory.

THE WEATHER.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF THE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER
WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—8 P. M.

Probabilities.

In the Northwest and over the upper lakes and thence to the Ohio Valley, variable southwesterly to northwesterly winds and generally clear weather; for Tennessee and Kentucky and the Gulf States, northeasterly winds with clearing weather in the former, but generally cloudy weather and occasional light rain in the latter States. In the South Atlantic States, light variable southerly to northeasterly winds with partially cloudy weather; on the lower lakes and thence over the Middle and Eastern States, southwesterly winds, cloudy weather, with occasional light rain, clearing to-night on the lakes.

ALABAMA.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 20. Gov. Lewis and all the newly elected officers took the oath of office this morning.

The body sitting at the United States Court room adjourned until to-morrow.

Lieut-Gov. McKinstry informed the Senate through the retiring Lieut-Gov. Moren, that he could not preside until to-morrow, whereupon the Senate elected Mr. Ervin as President pro tem.

Gov. Lewis has so far recognized neither body. It is rumored that he will issue a proclamation convening the Legislature to meet at the capitol to morrow at 10 o'clock.

MASSACHUSETTS.

THE NEW INSURANCE BILL.

BOSTON, Nov. 5. In the Senate this afternoon the Joint Special Committee on so much of the address of the Governor at the convening of the special session of the Legislature reported a general insurance bill, the main features of which are as follows:

Any ten or more residents of the Commonwealth may associate as an insurance company, stock or mutual, on complying with the act which requires joint stock companies to have a capital of not less than $200,000, and mutual companies with a guarantee capital of not less than $100,000, and not more than $300,000, and no policy is to be issued until the whole guarantee capital fixed has been paid in in cash.

After organizing, a certificate is to be submitted to the Insurance Commissioner, who shall, if the proceedings are satisfactory to him, give a certificate of the fact, and the filing of this with the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and shall authorize the latter official to issue a certificate of incorporation, which shall have the force and effect of a special charter.

The holders of stock in mutual companies are to be entitled to a net semi annual dividend not exceeding four per cent. on their respective shares, if the net profit, after providing for all expenses, losses and liabilities then incurred, including a sum sufficient to reinsure all outstanding risks, is sufficient to pay the same, and if such dividend is less than four per cent., it shall be made up when the net profit becomes sufficient therefor. Three fourths of the net profit after the payment of the dividend is to be credited to, and at the expiration of the policies divided among, the insured, and the remaining one-fourth is to be invested and be a reserve for the security of the insured; but when from time to time the reserve exceeds five per cent. on the amount insured, the whole of the excess is to be divided among the insured at the expiration of their policies. The guarantee capital is to be applied to the payment of losses only when the other cash funds have been exhausted, and if the guarantee capital is reduced it is to be replaced by the first accumulation of the reserve or by assessment on the contingent funds.

The directors may be elected from stockholders and policy holders, but at least half must be from the former class.

Joint stock companies are allowed to increase their capital stock with the approval of the Insurance Commissioner, and all corporations organized under the act can hold real estate for the purposes of their business to an amount not exceeding twenty-five per cent. of their cash assets.

Under a suspension of the Senate rules the bill was ordered to a third reading without debate.

NEW LOAN BILL.

In the House of Representatives a bill was reported authorizing the city of Boston to borrow twenty millions of dollars and loan the same on proper security to sufferers by the fire, the act to be accepted by both branches of the City Council before it becomes valid.

THE NUTMEG CASE.

The Wm. Wild & Co.'s alleged revenue fraud case is said to have been compromised by defendants paying United States Treasury $400,000. The amount originally claimed by the Government was $1,400,000. The suit against the same firm in New York has been compromised by payment of $120,000.

THE BODY FOUND in the ruins of the fire yesterday has been identified as John Dillon, aged 18, a resident of South Boston.

ANOTHER BODY

was found to-day, but was not identified.

SUSPENSIONS.

The suspension is announced of Franklin Snow & Co., E. Snow & Sons, Gerrish, French & Co., and Hall, Myrick & C.—all fish dealers.

ANOTHER CANDIDATE.

The Liberal Republicans have nominated Jos. F. Paul as candidate for Mayor at the coming municipal election. This is the third candidate for this office.

THE RELIEF FUND.

Total amount of relief fund up to this evening $1,613,312.04.

THE FLETCHER CASE.

WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 25. The examination of Twombly & Roberts, charged with inciting the negro Monroe to commit an assault on State Constable Fletcher was held at Black tone to-day. The negro testified that he never saw either of the men before, and both were discharged. Monroe is still under $10,000 bail.

FROM THE PACIFIC COAST

THE DIAMOND FIELDS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25. A. C. Stanton, Janin, Bost, and Colton have arrived from the diamond fields. Stanton has one ruby which he says is worth $150,000. The whole lot of diamonds brought by this party is represented to be worth $1,000,000. It is still claimed by some persons that the fields have been "salted," but the reports are very contradictory. The fields are said to be located near the head of the Rio Grande. Stanton reports that the fields visited by him are 12 miles square and situated in a desolate region.

NEW YORK STATE.

THE SHIPPING PROSPECTS.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 25. The snow has almost disappeared, the canal is still open and navigation unimpeded. The prospects for shipping during the next ten days are encouraging.

NORTH CAROLINA.

EX-GOV. VANCE NOMINATED FOR SENATOR.

RALEIGH, Nov. 25. The Conservatives in caucus this evening, nominated ex-Governor Vance for United States Senator. Seven or eight of Judge Merrimon's friends withdrew from the caucus. Balloting will commence to-morrow.

WISCONSIN.

GRANT'S MAJORITY.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 25. The official majority for Grant in Wisconsin is 18,193.

FOREIGN NEWS.

FRANCE.

SIGNS OF TROUBLE.

PARIS, Nov. 25. The Bourse is excited and flat. Rentes declined to 52 fr. 77c.

COMPROMISE IMPOSSIBLE.

LONDON, Nov. 25. Special dispatches from Paris to London evening papers report that the situation is gloomy. The majority in the National Assembly, it is stated, has determined to adhere to the position it has taken, and a compromise of the difference between the Executive and Legislative departments of the Government is regarded as impossible.

THE CANDIDATE OF THE RIGHT.

PARIS, Nov. 25. It is announced that members of the Party of the Right in the National Assembly have selected Gen. Changarnier as their candidate for President of the Republic in the event of the resignation of Thiers.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE ADDRESS.

Evening—The Committee on the Address have completed their report. They propose the immediate nomination of a select committee of 15 to draw up a bill providing for the creation of a responsible Ministry. They declare a reply to the President's message unnecessary, but M. Thiers is the Assembly's delegate. The report suggests no solution of constitutional questions. The minority of the Committee favorable to the President, have resolved to prepare a counter-report. The report of the majority, which makes the complete, caused much anxiety in political circles.

Le Soir advises the President to retort in a second message.

The majority of the Right is disposed to accept Thiers resignation if tendered and appoint Gen. Changarnier Dictator, with the Duc de Broglie and Messieurs Batbie and Desjardins in the Cabinet.

GREAT BRITAIN.

BAD WEATHER.

LONDON, Nov. 25. The weather to-day is very tempestuous; the telegraph lines have been prostrated in many places and much damage to shipping on the coast is reported.

THE DOMINION.

BOGUS DEBENTURES.

TORONTO, Ont., Nov. 25. Bogus schools of the city of Toronto debentures, bearing the signature of L. E. Fitzhenry, Chamberlain, have been sent here for collection from the United States, where it is understood a considerable amount of spurious debentures have been disposed of. The Chamberlain of Toronto is A. F. McCord, who has held the office since the incorporation of the city.

The annual report of the Secretary of the Interior will be a long document, devoted almost exclusively to summarising the year's work of the various branches of the public service under his charge, such as Land, Pension, Patents and Indian matters. The successful working of the present Indian policy will be set forth, and no recommendation of a change in regard to it will be made.

... the Penobscot & Dover railroad.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS

—The very last—"Episcopalianotenes."

—Northern Lights were bright last night.

—Storm doors have been placed at the Post Office entrances.

—The public schools are enjoying a week's vacation.

—The snow has disappeared and the streets were very muddy yesterday.

—The weather was quite warm yesterday, but a cold wind blew last night.

—The ferry-boats did a lively business during and after the fire last night.

—The examination and drill of the students at the State College occurs to day.

—A steam ferry between this city and Brewer is among the projects for next season.

—The directors of the Penobscot Log Driving Company meet at the clerk's office at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

—Shippers are hurrying up in anticipation of the closing of navigation, and the wharves and docks present a busy scene.

—An important legal decision concerning the rights of the city to extend the streets to low-water mark in the river and stream, will be found on our first page this morning.

—Superintendent Lincoln gives notice that no freight trains will be run or freight received on the Maine Central Railroad on Thursday next—Thanksgiving Day.

—The captain's interest in the brig E. C. Redman of this port, now at Boston, has been purchased by Capt. John Gardner of Castine, formerly master of the brig Annie Gardner.

—The schooner Lillian R. Warren, on her way from Rockland to New York, with a cargo of lime, struck a rock in Hell Gate, Sunday morning, but was got off, though considerably damaged and leaking.

—The Evening School of the Bangor Mechanic Association will commence on Monday evening next, at the Common Council Room, City Hall, under the direction of Mr. L. F. Forrest.

—The Thomas baggage check has been adopted on the Intercolonial Railway, and the check-cases for the stations—very handsomely made of black walnut by Dole Bro's of this city—were forwarded yesterday.

—The E. & N. A. day passenger train from St. John did not arrive here until about 7 o'clock last evening, owing to the disarrangement caused by the accident Saturday afternoon near Carleton.

—A large number of entries for the Penobscot Poultry Society's show to be held Tuesday, Thursday and Friday of next week, have been made. The exhibition promises to even eclipse that of last year.

—Theophilus Cushing, Esq., of Winterport bought the Boston Colseum at the auction Saturday, for $10,500. It contains 3,500,000 feet of lumber, and cost nearly twenty times the price it brought. Mr. Cushing has until the 15th of December to remove the building.

—A horse belonging to Mr. Charles Tebbetts died of the prevailing distemper Sunday night. This is the twelfth horse that has died of the epizootic in this city, and besides these one has died in Brewer and several on stage lines centering here.

—We hope our citizens will not, in the joyous Thanksgiving time, forget the inmates of the Children's Home. The little lads and lasses have no parents with whom to gather in family reunion on this day, and they should be generously remembered.

UNEXPECTED, SOMEWHAT. Five men "pitched into" a man named Dunroe, who was walking along Harlow-st. yesterday afternoon, with the avowed intention of giving him a thrashing. They awoke the wrong customer, however, for the assailants laid down in rapid succession under the quieting influence of his fists, and there was no one to "set 'em up again."

FIRE AT CASTINE. Our correspondent writes that the ell attached to the house of Mr. F. A. Jarvis at Castine was discovered to be on fire about 4 o'clock yesterday morning, and was nearly destroyed before the flames could be checked. The main house was considerably damaged by smoke. These same premises were damaged by fire to the amount of $200 or $300 under similar circumstances some six months since.

BRIG ASHORE AT WEST QUODDY HEAD. A dispatch from Eastport reports that the brig Harold, Captain Sinclair, of and from St. John, N. B, for Cardenas, with a cargo of box shooks, went ashore at West Quoddy Head, in a snow-squall Saturday. The U. S. Revenue Cutter Mosswood, Capt. Hodgdon went to the assistance of the vessel, as soon as the disaster was heard of, and succeeded in getting her off and towing her into Eastport Sunday. The brig is badly injured, and her bottom is thought to be out.

REPORTED ROBBERY. The night police on the East side heard a cry of "murder" on Exchange st. about one o'clock this morning, and hastening to the spot whence the alarm came, near the corner of Washington st., found a man named John Cowan, who belongs in Bradford, defending himself against three young men, who "dusted" as the police approached. Cowan's face was badly cut and bruised. He refused to give the names of his assailants, though he said he knew them. He was taken to the National House for lodgings, and just before arriving, declared he had been robbed of $25, but refused to tell who he suspected.

MISSING AND FOUND DROWNED. Our correspondent writes that much anxiety has been felt during the past week by the friends of a young man named Eugene Brown, who left the house of Dea. Joseph Brown of Dover, where he had been living, at an early hour Monday morning, 18th inst., and did not return. He left no word or note to state where he was going, and his whereabouts was a mystery for the entire week. Parties were on searching for him nearly every day, but their labors were fruitless until Sunday forenoon, when his body was found in the river just opposite the house of Dea. Brown. It is supposed that the young man drowned himself, judging by some expressions which have escaped him recently.

THE HIGH SCHOOL DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENT. City Hall was crowded to overflowing last evening on the occasion of the first appearance of the Senior Class of the High School, in the charming comedy, "Our Wife." The several parts were well taken, even better than some more pretentious players have done in our city, with a play requiring no more difficult acting than this. The characters were well selected, the players seeming to be specially suited to the particular parts. The costumes furnished by Mr. F. H. Prescott were elegant, and added much to the expression and interest of the play. Andrews' orchestra furnished excellent music, and when the curtain dropped on the final act of the comedy, the applause which had so frequently rewarded the efforts of the players was renewed with much spirit. The closing piece, the farce entitled "The Little Rebel," was given with an energy and a spirit that received the token of the audience's approval in well merited applause. The entertainment will be repeated this evening and judging from the success of their first appearance there will be no spare room in the hall.

FIRE IN BREWER. A few minutes before 7 o'clock last evening fire was discovered in the upper part of G. W. Spratt's livery stable near the Ferry-slip in Brewer, and a general alarm was given on this side of the river, which brought the Bangor ... and ... of the firemen ... company crossing the river, aided in subduing the flames, which were entirely extinguished in the course of a half hour. The fire broke out in some hay in the second story and about two tons of hay were destroyed and a hole burned through the roof—the whole damage amounting probably to some $150 or $200. Mr. Spratt's horses, carriages and harnesses were all safely taken out. The building was owned by Capt. G. W. Reid of this city, and insured. It is not known how the fire originated, as the last person known to be on the second floor was the hostler, who went up at half-past 4 in the afternoon to get some hay down. He says he was not smoking, however, and that he had no lantern. Had the fire gained a few minutes more headway several buildings must inevitably have been destroyed.

UNIFORM RAILROAD TIME. Dr. Lemuel G. Olmstead, who was graduated at Union College in 1834, has received a proposition, which he originally made in 1853, ... [illegible] ... He says:

"There is a great deal of uncertainty in every town as to the time when the cars arrive or leave, and thus a great amount of time is lost. Feeling this inconvenience, it occurred to me that the whole difficulty could be removed by having but one meridian, and regulating the clocks at every station throughout the whole country by this one meridian, and when the telegraph shall connect our country with Europe, we may, if we choose, have uniform time throughout the world, and every day at 12 M., or once a week from this meridian, the time may be telegraphed to all the principal stations, and the clocks regulated by this one meridian.

It matters little in the practical working of this plan what meridian is selected, but probably the meridian of Washington for obvious reasons would be best. Every railroad time bill may give the astronomic time and the railroad time; every person concerned will learn the difference between the railroad time and the time of the station where he lives, or, in other words, the difference in time between his residence and the meridian from which railroad time is taken. Having once learned the difference of time between where he lives and the meridian which governs the railroad clocks, he has only to add or subtract from the railroad time, as he may be east or west of the meridian, and he will have the local time desired. This plan involves no new principle which is not now acted on upon every railroad in the country, and there is no objection that can be urged against it which may not be urged against any and every road in our land.

Among the advantages of this scheme are that, having uniform time, all concerned can act in harmony. The merchant in New York or elsewhere, with a railroad time bill and chart before him can know just where the train is in any part of the United States, and can communicate with his agents by telegraph, mail or express, recall or change their routes, or, with the police, he can head off a thief. Uniform time will greatly simplify the whole movement upon our railroads and thus diminish the dangers from collision. It will regulate the local time in every town in our country where there is a railroad or telegraph, and the amount of time that will be saved by the adoption and carrying out of this simple plan will be incalculable."

The best argument that can be used in favor of SMOLANDER'S BUCHU is that, it is a preparation constantly prescribed by family physicians of note in our immediate community, for kidney, bladder, and glandular diseases, loss of vigor, mental and physical debility, female irregularities and all maladies of the urino-genital organs.

A STABLE INSTITUTION.—Just at the period when all stable-men where complaining that the horse-ointments of the day were unstable remedies, the MUSTANG LINIMENT made its entrance in Missouri, without any flourish of trumpets, and within one year, became the favorite embrocation for the external distempers and injuries of horses and cattle in all the Western and Southern States. From that time to this, it has never had a rival in the estimation of accomplished horsemen; nor is its household reputations as a cure for rheumatism, neuralgia, sore nipples and caked breasts, tumors, mumps, sore throat, earache, toothache bruises burns, wounds and sprains, a whit behind its celebrity as a horse Liniment. The Mothers of America know its value, and apply promptly to the external injuries of the "rising generation," and in fact there is not a city or township in the United States where the MUSTANG LINIMENT is not regarded by both sexes and and every class, as a blessing to the community.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP,
SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC,
SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS,
Are the only medicines that will cure Pulmonary Consumption.
Sometimes medicines that will stop a cough will often occasion the death of the patient. It locks up the liver, stops the circulation of the blood, hemorrhage follows, and, in fact, clogging the action of the very organs that caused the cough.
Liver complaint and dyspepsia are the causes of two thirds of the cases of consumption. Many are now complaining with dull pain in the side, the bowels sometimes costive and sometimes too loose, tongue coated, pain in the shoulder blade, feeling sometimes very restless, and at other times drowsy; the food that is taken lies heavily on the stomach, accompanied with acidity and belching of wind. These symptoms usually originate from a disordered condition of the stomach or a torpid liver. Persons so affected, if they take one or two heavy colds, and if the cough in these cases be suddenly stopped, the lungs, liver and stomach clog, and remain torpid and inactive, and before the patient is aware of his situation, the lungs are a mass of sores, and ulcerated, and death is the inevitable result.
Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup is an expectorant which does not contain any opium, nor anything calculated to check a cough suddenly.
Schenck's Seaweed tonic dissolves the food, mixes with the gastric juice of the stomach, digests easily, nourishes the system, and creates a healthy circulation of the blood. When the bowels are costive, skin sallow, and the patient is of a bilious habit, Schenck's Mandrake Pills are required.
These medicines are prepared by Dr. J. H. SCHENCK & SON, Northeast corner of Sixth and Arch streets, Philadelphia, Penn., and for sale by GEO. C. GOODWIN & CO., Hanover street, Boston, & JOHN F. HENRY, 8 College place, New York, Wholesale Agents.

Holloway's Ointment.
The grand principle that operates in these wonderful medicines, is the power that they possess in purifying the turgid blood, and expelling corrupt humors from the system.
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS consist of a careful and peculiar admixture of the finest Vegetable Extracts, Herbs and Medicinal Gums. Possessing not a grain of mineral in their combination, they never expose those who use them to any danger, at any time or season. No mother need hesitate to prescribe them to her children, and the most delicate constitution can use them with as great a benefit as the most vigorous and powerful frame.

LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Passed at the Second Session of the Forty-second Congress.

POSTAL CONVENTION between the United States of America and the Republic of Ecuador.

The final report, John A. J. Cresswell, Postmaster General of the United States of America, in virtue of the powers vested in him by law, and Antonio Flores, minister of the Republic of Ecuador at Washington, in the name of his government, and by virtue of the powers which he has formally presented to this effect, have agreed upon the following articles, to wit:

ARTICLE 1.

An exchange of mails shall hereafter take place between the United States of America and the Republic of Ecuador, by the ordinary means of communication via the Isthmus of Panama, the government of the United States to be at the expense of the transportation thereof between New York, Panama, San Francisco and Panama, so long as direct service by United States steamers, including the Isthmus transit, a satisfactory mode existing conditions; and the government of Ecuador to be at the expense of the transportation thereof between Panama and Ecuador so long as the present or other similar arrangement for the conveyance of mail service between Panama and Ecuador is continued. The correspondence so exchanged shall comprise:

1. Letters and unassorted prints subject by the laws of either country to letter rate of postage.

2. Newspapers and prints of all kinds, in sheets, in pamphlets, and in books, sheets of music, engravings, lithographs, photographs, drawings, maps and plans, and such correspondence may be exchanged, whether originating in either of said countries and destined for the other, or originating in or destined for foreign countries to which they may respectively serve as intermediaries.

ARTICLE 2.

New York and San Francisco shall be the offices of exchange on the side of the United States, and Guayaquil and Manta shall be the offices of exchange on the side of Ecuador, for all mails transmitted between the two countries under this arrangement, and all mail matter transmitted in either direction between the respective offices of exchange shall be forwarded in closed bags or pouches, under seals to be used by the postal service of the country to which such bags or pouches shall be addressed, from which it shall be exchanged, or the United States mail and Ecuadorian mail agent at the port from which it is dispatched, as the case may require, for delivery at their respective ultimate destinations.

The officers of the departments may, at any time thereafter, direct the exchange at any time thereafter, direct the exchange at any other of said offices of exchange or estafeta than those.

ARTICLE 3.

The standard weight for the single rate of postage and unit of progression shall be.

1. For letters, or in manuscripts subject by law to letter rate of postage, one-half (½) ounce, (avoirdupois.)

2. For all other correspondence mentioned in the second paragraph of the first article, that which the Congress of the United States may for the time being fix for the other, adapted to the convenient and economical administration; but each country shall have the right to vary the rate of the standard weight, if, adopts, and of any subsequent change thereof. The weight stated by the dispatching department shall always be accepted, except in cases manifestly erroneous.

ARTICLE 4.

No accounts shall be kept between the Post Office Departments of the two countries on the intermediation of foreign offices, nor shall any claim be made by one country against the other for any portion of the postage collected on correspondence exchanged between them, but each country shall levy, collect, and retain to its own use the following postal charges, viz:

The postage to be charged and collected in the United States on each letter, or manuscript subject to letter rate, or fraction of one half ounce, addressed to any place in the republic of Ecuador, shall be twenty-five cents, United States currency, for each weight of half an ounce or fraction of half an ounce, and the postage to be charged and collected in Ecuador on each letter, or manuscript subject to letter postage, mailed in Ecuador and addressed to any place in the United States of America, shall be two (2) reals, or the fifth part of a dollar hard Ecuador currency, the same to be, in each case, in full of all charges whatever, to the place of destination and to be prepaid by the correspondent in the country of origin.

Either country, however, is at liberty to reduce this charge, but not to increase it without the previous assent of the other.

All other correspondence mentioned in the second paragraph of the first article the Post Departments of the United States and Ecuador may respectively agree, conclude, and retain to their use exclusive use such rates of postage adapted to their respective administration and to the rate of exchange existing at the time between the two countries, as they shall deem advisable, due notice to the other of the rates adopted, and of any subsequent change thereof. The weight stated by the dispatching department shall always be accepted, except in cases manifestly erroneous.

ARTICLE 5.

No accounts shall be kept between the Post Offices Departments of the two countries on the intermediation of foreign offices, nor shall any claim be made by one country against the other for any portion of the postage collected on correspondence exchanged between them, but each country shall levy, collect, and retain to its own use the following postal charges, viz:

The postage to be charged and collected in the United States on each letter, or manuscript subject to letter rate, or fraction of one half ounce, addressed to any place in the republic of Ecuador, shall be twenty-five cents, United States currency, for each weight of half an ounce or fraction of half an ounce, and the postage to be charged and collected in Ecuador on each letter, or manuscript subject to letter postage, mailed in Ecuador and addressed to any place in the United States of America, shall be two (2) reals, or the fifth part of a dollar hard Ecuador currency, the same to be, in each case, in full of all charges whatever, to the place of destination and to be prepaid by the correspondent in the country of origin. Either country, however, is at liberty to reduce this charge, but not to increase it without the previous assent of the other.

All other correspondence mentioned in the second paragraph of the first article the Post Departments of the United States and Ecuador may respectively agree, conclude, and retain to their use exclusive use such rates of postage adapted to their respective administration and to the rate of exchange existing at the time between the two countries, as they shall deem advisable, due notice to the other of the rates adopted, and of any subsequent change thereof. The weight stated by the dispatching department shall always be accepted, except in cases manifestly erroneous.

ARTICLE 6.

The Post Department of the United States, shall establish, in connection with the arrangement in force at the time, the conditions upon which the Post Department of Ecuador may exchange, open mails, and correspondence originating in Ecuador and destined for countries to which the United States may serve as an intermediary; but such correspondence shall only be charged with the international postage established by the convention, together with the postage rules in force between the United States and the country of destination, and any other for the external service.

The Post Department of the United States shall furnish the Post Department of Ecuador with a list of the post offices of the United States to the foreign offices, and the amounts thereof must be absolutely prepaid, or no letters unpaid, and shall in life such be forwarded to the United States transit and destination mail agent at the port from which it is dispatched, as the case may require.

The postal arrangements of the preceding paragraph, as also the marked A la Izquierda anuexo, concerning the countries with which, and specifying the terms and conditions on which, Ecuador may exchange correspondence by way of the United States.

Correspondence of the class must be accompanied, by a certificate from the dispatching exchange office of Ecuador, specifying the amount of postage due on each letter, and the receiving exchange office of the United States shall return by next post to the dispatching exchange office an acknowledgment thereof, which letter-bills in conformity with the model 5 and C, hereto annexed, and in all cases as vouchers in the settlement of the accounts.

The accounts to be kept between the two Post Departments upon the case of correspondence shall be rendered quarterly, transmitted and verified as specified in the preceding, and the amounts found due shall be paid promptly to the United States office, under such regulations as the respective Post Departments may from time to time prescribe. Such quarterly statements shall be prepared by the United States in the form D, hereunto annexed.

ARTICLE 7.

Letters originating in foreign countries and addressed to the United States or Ecuador, respectively, or to both in the foreign and international postal service, fully prepaid, shall, when forwarded in open mails of the other country, be delivered free of charge.

ARTICLE 8.

Official correspondence between the two governments, and that of the one with the consular offices of the other, and of each with the offices of the other, shall be conveyed to its destination free of charge, with all the precautions which the two governments may find necessary for its inviolability and security.

ARTICLE 9.

When in one of the two countries there is no regular line of mail steamers, the tracking privilege of the navigation shall be transferred, in the terms stipulated in the preceding article, to the respective consulate or vice-consulate at New York or Guayaquil.

ARTICLE 10.

The Post Department shall be required to decide in any case of dispute that may arise in the course of the service, but such decision shall not be considered as binding on the country of destination; and a particular subject to further control or to customs duty or to confiscation shall, when received in the mails of the same, be treated in accordance with the laws of the receiving country.

ARTICLE 11.

The Post Departments may, by mutual agreement, provide for the transmission of registered letters in the mails exchanged between the two countries.

The registry fee for each article shall be twenty cents in the United States and one (1) real in Ecuador.

ARTICLE 12.

The two Post Departments shall settle, by agreement between them, all measures of detail and management as may be needful to carry this convention into execution, and may modify the same in the manner from time to time, as the exigencies of the service may require. Articles may also, by mutual consent, be amended, added to or suppressed, according to the experience of the services, without materially affecting or impairing any other of the articles of this convention.

ARTICLE 13.

This convention shall take effect from the date of the exchange of ratifications, and shall continue in force until cancelled by mutual consent or until one year from a notice of withdrawal by one of the two governments to the other of its desire to terminate the same.

ARTICLE 14.

This convention shall be approved and ratified in the manner and form prescribed by the constitution and laws of each of the high contracting parties, and the exchange of ratifications shall be made at Washington six months after the last ratification, or sooner, if possible.

Done in duplicate, at the city of Washington, this ninth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one.

[L. S.] JNO. A. J. CRESWELL,
Postmaster General of the United States.

[L. S.] ANTONIO FLORES.

I hereby approve the aforegoing convention, and in testimony thereof I have caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

[L. S.] U. S. GRANT.

By the President
HAMILTON FISH,
Secretary of State.
Washington, May 9, 1871.

Translation.]

Having seen and examined the aforegoing postal convention which has been approved by the legislative decree of the last of the present month, and the exercise of the ninth attribute of the ninety-first article of the constitution, I have ratified it, as by the present I do ratify and declare it accepted, sanctioned and obligatory in all and each of its parts, and all the stipulations contained in said convention, solemnly engaging and pledging for its faithful and exact observance on the part of Ecuador the national faith and honor.

In testimony of which I have caused the present to be prepared, signed with my hand, with the seal of the republic and countersigned by the undersigned minister of foreign relations, in Quito, the eighteenth of September, eighteen hundred and seventy-one.

OF THE

Railroad Company.

TO CAREFUL INVESTORS

It is seldom that Mortgages upon new Railroads are considered sufficiently safe for the investment of Trust Funds. It is only when a Railroad is earning, not, an excess of its interest obligations, with a certainty of a steady growth, that its Bonds can be said to be perfectly safe.

The CHICAGO, DANVILLE AND VINCENNES RAILROAD is doing this, and has its certainty. That part of it known as the ILLINOIS DIVISION (from Chicago to Danville, 132 Miles,) was finished last year, and its gross earnings have increased from $34,444.07 in December, 1871, to $57,257.95 in August, 1872.

The net earnings for August were $30,[illegible] 2.40, or at the rate of $364,949.88 per annum. The total interest liability upon the total issue of Bonds is on both the Illinois and Indiana divisions is $280,000. gold. The Illinois division is, therefore, earning net, more than enough to pay interest upon the entire bonded debt upon the whole road.

THE INDIANA DIVISION, is about eighty miles in length, traversing extensive Bituminous Coal fields and making a direct (and the shortest possible) line between Chicago and the Block Coal district at Brazil.

The Iron and other materials for the Indiana Division have all been bought and paid for in cash; a part of it is now in operation, and the entire Division is to be finished this season and opened to a profitable business.

The company is not in debt, and owns a large and very valuable real estate in Chicago, besides having an equipment of twenty-five first-class locomotives and about 900 cars.

A first mortgage upon such a road, at the rate of $10,500 per mile is a safe investment, and we know of no other railroad bond; at the price asked for this, that can demonstrate a similar value as a security for savings banks and others.

We have sold nearly two millions of these bonds to savings banks, trust companies and the most careful investors, and have but $830,000 bonds remaining.

They are for $1,000 each; and have forty years to run. Interest

7 PER CENT. GOLD,

payable April and October. Present price 90 and accrued interest from October 1st in currency

The last week of our sales of ILLINOIS DIVISION BONDS amounted to $500,000. Early orders are therefore suggested, in order to secure any portion of this extremely desirable loan.

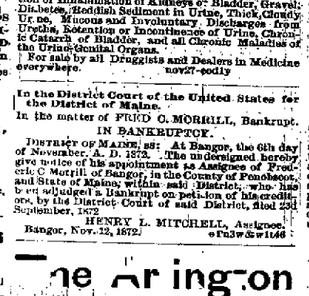
The Barrington

Chilson's New Portable Range.



THIS RANGE has been got up expressly to meet the increasing demand for a SETTER CLASS OF GOODS THAT HAS EVER BEFORE BEEN OFFERED TO THE PUBLIC. All want the best work for the least money, and in this everything will be found that can be desired in a Portable Range.

The Range, as represented in the cut, shows the RICHEST and most BEAUTIFUL Finish ever made in Stove Castings. Only the FINEST QUALITY of Iron, and the most THOROUGH WORKMANSHIP are admitted in the class of work.

The following are some of the useful improvements of this Range.

1st. It has six Boiling Holes.

2d. It has Collars to receive the smoke-pipe on either the top or back.

3d. It has a nice arrangement for the admission of cold air for perfectly regulating the draft, and keeping a continuous fire when desired.

4th. It is so arranged that an heat can escape directly to the chimney without doing its work, consequently there is no unnecessary waste of fuel.

5th. The flues are so constructed that every part of the oven is quickly and evenly heated.

6th. It has Chilson's patent Water-Front Fixtures, for heating water in the reservoir, when desired. These are the most perfect for the purpose ever invented.

7th. It is vaulted or double plated around the oven, thus preventing the cold air from coming in contact with the outside oven plates. This is an important improvement, causing the ovens to bake perfectly with a small fire.

8th. It has an adjustable Sifting Grate and Ash Pan, so that it is impossible for dust to escape into the room while sifting the ashes.

9th. It has a most convenient plan for cleaning the flues of ashes, etc.

10th. It is made with and without Hot Closets and Reservoirs.

11th. It is very ornamental and makes a splendid appearance in the kitchen. Call and see it, or send for a circular containing cuts and prices.

The Barrington is manufactured by Chilson, Bassett & Co., Winchendon, Mass., and for sale by the trade generally throughout the country.
